Story of A Newfoundland Stamp

THIS is the strange yet true story of a Newfoundland government air mail stamp, issued officially to commemorate in 1932 a "First Trans-Atlantic Air Mail and Passenger Flight" from Wayzata, Minnesota, U. S. A., to London, England, by way of the northern Atlantic route.

Conceived in the mother country, and then brought into existence in a strange land fully 4,000 miles away, this waif of a stamp has been called upon to face more dangers and difficulties during its brief life than have befallen almost any other official government stamp known to the philatelic world. The experiences of Little Alice in Alice's Wonderland were not a whit more fantastic than those which have befallen this forlorn Newfoundland stamp since its birth in Minnesota barely three months ago.

Here are but a few of the many attributes which are said to set this stamp apart from all others of its kind:

First: A special stamp commemorating a proposed historic "First Trans-Atlantic Air Mail and Passenger Flight" from Wayzata, Minn., a western American interior town, to London, England, by way of Newfoundland, Labrador, Greenland, Iceland, and Scandinavia.

Second: A special commemorative air mail stamp the issuance of which was disapproved by one Newfoundland Government, only to be approved by the succeeding one, giving it political significance.

Third: The first stamp officially issued by the Newfoundland Government which has ever been printed in the United States, except by the British American Bank Note Company.

Fourth: A stamp which, although issued originally in an edition of 400,000 stamps, now finds itself strangely limited to an actual edition of 25,000 stamps which the Newfoundland Government is trying to recall, but which it cannot recall because the purchasers of this smaller edition refuse to give it up.

Fifth: A stamp which, although issued for use on letters to be carried on a proposed epochal trip across the Atlantic, now finds itself without any officially designated carrier to send it on its way.

Sixth: A stamp created and designed in Minneapolis, Minn., and then submitted to the Newfoundland Government for approval, prior to the actual printing of the edition in Minneapolis, an unusual procedure.

But let us proceed with the story of this stamp that all the trials and vicissitudes through which it has passed during its troublous existence may be better understood.

Some two years ago, those since allied with the proposed flight conceived of the idea of organizing a "First Trans-Atlantic Air Mail and Passenger Flight", to demonstrate that heavier-than-air machines could be used in a practicable way for the

R. C. Bach, Publisher Stamp Collectors' Magazine, a Suicide.

Becomes Enraged Over Series of Stenographic Errors

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Rudolph C. Bach, 45, editor and publisher of the Stamp Collectors' magazine, shot and killed himself last night, police said, in a fit of anger over a series of stenographic errors.

Bach was dictating to Miss Helen Lesh, owner of a stamp shop, in her office when he became enraged and rushed into his own office next door.

Returning, he placed a pistol to his head and fired, falling dead at Miss Lesh's feet. The young woman, who was questioned by police and later released, said Bach had spoken several times of ending his life. Police said his magazine had been losing money.

—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

transportation of passengers and mail between North America and Europe, by way of Labrador, Greenland and Iceland.

In order to carry out this idea it was necessary to enlist the cooperation of some government, and induce it to issue the commemorative stamps to be used on such a trip. After months and months of negotiations, during which approval of the plan was refused by one Newfoundland Government, the succeeding government finally gave its consent. In June, this year, a written contract was finally entered into with the Newfoundland Government which provided for the issuance of 400,000 one-dollar commemorative air-mail stamps for use on letters carried by air on this proposed flight from America to Europe.

Since the primary purpose of the flight was the actual carriage of mail and passengers, it was necessary to arrange for an aeroplane large enough to carry up to 400,000 pieces of mail, and at least a dozen or more passengers, and crew. The ship which had been selected for the flight was a Sikorsky amphibian S-40 44-place plane, which was just being completed by the factory.

Because the flight had to be completed not later than early October, in order to avoid the harassing weather conditions which arise along the northern Atlantic route late in the fall, plans for the flight were rushed at every step. A design for the stamp, which had been made in Minneapolis, had been approved by the Newfoundland Government. So dies for the stamp were made, and, because of the shortness of time, the stamps, by official authorization of the Newfoundland Government, were printed in Minneapolis, instead of in the British Empire. The entire edition was engraved and printed in sixteen days. The 400,000 stamps were then turned over to the Northwestern National Bank, of Minneapolis, which had been appointed a sub-agent of the Newfoundland Government through the Bank of Montreal, an agent of the Newfoundland Government. In such official way, widely different from that usually employed in the issuance of official government stamps, did this "First Trans-Atlantic Air Mail and Passenger Flight" Newfoundland stamp come into existence.

The Newfoundland contract made with Aerial World Tours Inc., the corporation set up to guide the destinies of the proposed flight, provided that stamps could be withdrawn for sale in blocks of 25,000 stamps at a time. So a first block of 25,000 stamps was withdrawn by Aerial World Tours Inc., payment for the stamps was accepted by the Newfoundland Government, and the sale of stamps was opened by Aerial World Tours Inc.

Though little preliminary publicity had been possible, because of the hurried nature of the venture, there was an instant demand for the stamps. Orders began coming in from all parts of the United States and Canada, and letters for carriage to Europe accumulated. As the people of Minnesota and adjoining states are largely of Scandinavian or German origin, many of these letters were addressed by buyers to friends and relatives abroad.

At this point Trouble stalked upon the scene. Hardly had the sales campaign begun when it became evident that the large amount of money required for the purchase of the S-40 Sikorsky flying-boat could not be raised successfully in so short a time. So many innumerable and unexpected delays had arisen that much valuable time had been lost in getting preparations under way. The brevity of time now loomed up as an almost insuperable obstacle to the flight.

But how about the letters which had accumulated by the thousands! There was but one answer—they would have to be taken to Europe. Promises had been made, and promises would have to be kept. Mindful of this responsibility to the Newfoundland Government, and itself, Aerial World Tours Inc., dropped the original idea of buying so large a craft, and began negotiations for a smaller Sikorsky amphibian plane which had been specially constructed for sea use. This boat, capable of carrying a small crew, six to eight passengers, and up to 100,000 pieces of mail, was brought to Wayzata, Minn., for the proposed flight the last day of August.

A wire was now sent to the Newfoundland agent of Aerial World Tours Inc., at St. John's, telling about the new arrangements, explaining plans under way for the exhibition of the plane at the Minnesota State Fair the following week, and giving complete information about the sale of stamps. The wire advised Newfoundland Government officials to inform those in charge of the proposed flight if such plans were unsatisfactory in any way. No answer was received, and preparations for the flight were rushed.

The exhibition of the plane at the Minnesota State Fair gave unexpected impetus to the stamp sales campaign. The greatly reduced budget of expense for the flight, resulting from the use of the smaller plane, now made the flight a certainty, in the minds of all. It was now possible to set the date of departure at September 25, or earlier. To make a big load of mail a certainty, a big final drive for the sale of stamps was set for the week beginning Monday, September 12, the week following the fair.

This drive was destined never to take place. On Saturday, September 10, came the death-blow to the flight. On that day two telegrams arrived in Minneapolis from the Attorney General of the Newfoundland Government. One, addressed to Aerial World Tours, briefly advised it to return all unsold stamps to the Northwestern National Bank, and round up all stamps which had been sold. The other, addressed to the bank, advised it to release no more stamps, and get back the 25,000 stamps which had been turned over by it to Aerial World Tours.

Naturally, there was consternation! How could stamps which had been sold from one end of the country to the other be collected? Numerous purchasers of stamps were interviewed to ascertain if they would accept a refund, and return their stamps. Naturally most purchasers viewed this procedure with suspicion. If these stamps were worth so much to the government, they might easily be worth far more to the buyers.

"No, we will not give them up," was the invariable reply. "We bought these stamps for use on letters we have given you for carriage to Europe. We now demand that these letters be carried, as represented. The Newfoundland Government has assumed this responsibility. Let the government carry it out."

A hurried wire was sent to the Newfoundland Government advising it of the situation, and begging it to rescind its action, and let the flight go on.

There was no reply.

A second wire was forwarded.

Still there was no reply.

Then, simultaneous with its appearance in like form in numerous other newspapers in Eastern Canada and United States, came the contents of a newspaper clipping from the New York Daily Times:

St. John's, Newfoundland, Sept. 13 (C. P.).—The Newfoundland Government has cancelled its special issue of 400,000 stamps which were to be sold during a world flight sponsored by Aerial World Tours Inc., of Minneapolis. This action was taken because the flight has not started, it was stated officially today. About 25,000 stamps have been issued, and the Government has demanded their collection and return.

To officials of Aerial World Tours this announcement seemed final. So, on Saturday, September 17, a last wire was sent to the Attorney General of Newfoundland stating that those in charge of the proposed flight were accepting the ultimatum received seven days previously, and were calling off the flight.

As to the status of the Newfoundland Government, those who bought stamps and affixed them to envelopes for transportation on the proposed flight are insisting upon the cancellation of these letters by the Newfoundland Government, as was promised originally. In the opinions of numerous lawyers consulted, and persons familiar with postal regulations, this will have to be done.

That the Newfoundland Government has no legal or ethical right to recall the stamps sold by Aerial World Tours Inc., is self-evident. These stamps, when they were sold, passed entirely out of the hands of the Newfoundland Government, and now belong to those who bought them. Purchasers of these stamps may keep them, or sell them, at will.

On final analysis, one feels somewhat inclined to sympathize with this forlorn Newfoundland air mail stamp, printed originally for definite use in the carriage of mail, but which now finds itself stranded so unceremoniously by the mother country in a strange land so many thousands of miles away.

EDITOR'S NOTE.—The above story is supplied by people who term themselves "Minneapolis Stamp Committee—Committee of buyers of First Trans-Atlantic Air Mail and Passenger—Newfoundland Stamps."

We can not in any way vouch for the truth of the statements in the above story and the question enters our mind, "Have all the facts been told?" Is it possible that the refusal of the Newfoundland Government to go through with their agreement, is due to the fact that Aerial World Tours might not have kept their part of the agreement? We also wonder if it is possible that this so-called "Minneapolis Stamp Committee" and Aerial World Tours, may be one and the same group of people. Altho it is stated that lawyers claim the Newfoundland Government will have to live up to their agreement, we want to remember that we are dealing with a Government and that governments sometimes recognize agreements as "scraps of paper." The question next arises, will the Northwestern National Bank of Minneapolis hold the other 375,000 copies of this stamp and keep it off the market or will the printers levy on this supply to get their account settled if it has not been paid. With 25,000 of the stamps in existence, if recognized by cataloguers as government postage stamps, the price of $1.00 is a high figure for the stamp. Should more than 25,000 come into the market the dollar price would be ridiculous. All of which would seem to lead any collector to be a bit cautious and know the real facts before investing a dollar in what may at the best, turn out to be a souvenir of a big "racket" which blew up.

"BUDDY" COWART

A Pennsylvania cover dealer is now offering "Akron" Poster Stamps and covers autographed by Charles M. "Buddy" Cowart, the 19 year old goby who clung to the mooring cable at San Diego and was carried 2500 feet into the air before being pulled to safety aboard the airship. Autographed Akron covers with the signature of this young man with the charmed life would seem a very appropriate part of an Akron cover collection.

A FORECAST AND RECORD

Swift to Report → Straight to Record

Send all information regarding new issues direct to the editor of this Department, address below.
Stamps submitted for examination and listing will be returned promptly.

RAY SHEPARD, . . . 1529 DUXBERRY AVE., . . . COLUMBUS, OHIO

BELGIUM—Another commemorative is forecast for this country. This time it is to honor Prof. Piccard, whom our readers will recall as being in the news recently, with his recent experiments with the stratosphere. Definite information as to colors and value not known at this writing.

(Rene Boon)

FRANCE—The first of the additional values, of the current set, in the new peace design, as forecast in our issue of Aug. 13th, has appeared:

90c. red

(Arthur Petersen)

ITALIAN COLONIES—The new 100 lira Air Mail, chronicled by us on September 10th, has undergone a slight change in wording across the top and been printed in new colors, for use in the colonies. The new wording being: "POSTA AEREA COLONIE ITALIANE" and the colors, blue-green for the borders and sepia for the portrait:

100 lira—blue green and brown

(Arthur Petersen)

JUGOSLAVIA—The special stamps noted in our issue of September 24th, have appeared. They are rather crudely printed pictorials, in large format. The inscription reads: "VESLACKI SAMPIONAT EUROPE 1932". All values, except the 3D. plus 1D. are in two colors, this alone being in blue only. The central designs all picture river and rowing scenes, except the highest value which has a girl in a yachting costume. As we noted the values in our previous chronicle, we will not take the space here to repeat, nor to give the colors and designs in detail.

(A. F. Turner, London, Eng.)

MANCHUKUO—The new set for this latest addition to philately has appeared and is apparently of Japanese workmanship, and embody two designs. The eleven lower values show an ancient Pagoda (sacred tower) flanked by sugar canes, while the seven higher values bear a portrait of President Henry Pu Yi (ex-Emperor of China) surrounded by branches of laurel. The values alone are in Western characters, the rest of the inscriptions being in syllabics throughout. Unwmk. perf. 13x13½. The values are in fens and yuan, in place of cents and dollars, as previously chronicled. The colors, beginning with the ½ fen and going straight through to the dollar are as follows: sepia, red-brown, lilac, slate, brown, olive, green, red, gray, bistre, orange, brown, red, blue-green, sepia, orange, olive, and violet.

(A. F. Turner)

MEXICO—Two more "OFFICIAL" air mail stamps have appeared, to go with the 5c chronicled September 10th:

10c. violet (Servicio Oficial)

50c. blue and brown (Servicio Oficial)

The 50c. comes normally on unwatermarked paper, but we are informed that ONE sheet of the watermarked variety was included in the supply. We also are advised that the Carranza "Habitada 1932" set exists imperf. and that one sheet of each value was supplied in this form to members of the Senate.

(A. F. Turner)

NEW GUINEA—As forecast in our notes of March 26th, the following is recorded. Bird of Paradise design, same as previous issue, but scrolls at left and right containing the dates "1921" and "1931", have been removed. The colors of the 1½p. and 2p., have been reversed. There are three sets as before, the Ordinary postage, the "O. S." set, and the Air Mail, which are overprinted with an airplane and the words "AIR MAIL", all in black surcharge. Perf. 11½ unwmk. Printed in sheets of 30, (3 rows of 10), by John Ash.

Postage: 1p. yellow green; 1½p. mauve; 2p. red; 3p. pale blue; 4p. sage green; 5p. slate; 6p. bistre brown; 9p. purple; 1s. gray blue; 2s. claret; 5s. olive brown; 10s. rose; 1pound. greenish gray.

Air Mail: Same values as above with the addition of a ½p. orange.

Officials: Same values as the postage set, with the exception of the 10s. and 1 pound values.

(R. Roberts)

PARAGUAY—A new 10 pesos stamp, similar to Scott's A57, has appeared:

10p. deep blue on pink toned paper

(R. Roberts)

G. B. WHEELER,

—(Stamps of the World and Covers)—

POLAND—The five values heralded in our notes of August 6th, have now appeared. The design is an improved version of that of the 1929 issue, with shaded, in place of solid background and other slight variations. Also the posthorn watermark is introduced for the first time.

(A. F. Turner)

ZANZIBAR—The 2c. of the Postage Due set chronicled March 5th, has now appeared with a "fancy" border, in place of the plain type set border of the first issued. The colors are the same.

(A. F. Turner)

SPECIAL WEBSTER CACHET

Supplementing the information in our issue for last week, we have a letter from the Mayor of Franklin, N. Hamp., Mr. Rodney A. Griffin, giving further news and information about the special envelopes to be sold at Franklin, for the first day mailing of the Webster Stamp.

The issue of this special envelope has been through an act of the City Council of Franklin on request of Mayor Griffin. The cachet on the envelope is illustrated herewith and the flap of the envelope will bear another Webster cachet, the seal of the Chamber of Commerce of Franklin.

Envelopes to any address will be stamped and mailed at a charge of 15c each. Envelopes for your own use are now on sale and may be purchased at 12 for 25c.

Orders should be addressed to Rodney A. Griffin, c/o Chamber of Commerce, Franklin, New Hampshire. Remittances should be made either in coin or currency or by money order. You can not expect them to accept your check or postage stamps.

AN OFFICIAL CACHET AT HANOVER

An official cachet has also been prepared for Hanover, N. Hamp. and will be applied to all covers through that postoffice on October 24, unless it is requested that the cachet be omitted. This cachet was designed by C. N. Allen, it is 3x2 1/4 inches in size and is sponsored by the Hanover Junior Stamp Club of which Mr. Allen is Director, also by Dartmouth College from which Webster graduated in 1801, and by the local postmaster.

The design is adapted from a drawing by George Ticknor in 1803 when he was an eleven-year-old sophomore at Dartmouth. The cachet will be applied in green, green and white being the college colors.

Covers may be sent in the usual manner either to the postmaster or to Mr. C. N. Allen, Parker Apartments J, Hanover, N. Hamp. Remittance for stamps to be affixed must be by money order.

Precancels

Information regarding new issues and notes of interest on all Precancels, other than Bureau Prints, should be sent direct to the Editor of this column.

K. M. GIERHART, BALTIMORE, OHIO

Lawrence Bros. submit a stamp a client sent in for their purchase from Aurora, Ill., in U-75 type with the error AUROA, the last R missing. According to the '32 catalog this error occurs in the eighteenth stamp. In the tenth stamp of the same handstamp the error ATRORA occurs. I have never seen this latter one.

The new metal Handstamps are being quite freely distributed. Have reports from Chatfield and New Washington, Ohio, New Berlin, New York, San Juan, Porto Rico. This will make some of our Bicentennials quite scarce.

The Precancel Clearing House of Newark, N. J., donated to your editor a fine block of four of the 7c Jackson, Mich. type U-2. The lower right stamp being from the part of the plate that is damaged. The letters while all there are bent upwards and the bar is almost all gone. This is the third different stamp I have seen from this part of the plate and proves that this break is constant and is really one of the breaks worth saving.

To Precancel Stamp Society Members. The Precancel Bee was elected as the official organ again and Indianapolis is the convention city for next year.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN STATION CACHET

The publishers wish to acknowledge receipt of air mail covers bearing the cachet of the new Benjamin Franklin Station at Washington, from Elmer F. Bauer, Jr., of the Lancaster, Pa. Stamp Club also from Mr. J. W. Stoutsberg of Collinsville, Ill. A cover with a 2c Bicentennial placed on a 1c stamped envelope to make the 3c rate is from Michael Kalinchak of Bethlehem, Pa. The envelope is one of the 1c blue Franklins of 1870 and makes a very interesting souvenir of this event.

Mr. Ralston Lyon of Washington, D. C., very kindly sends some information regarding the application of this special cachet which will be of interest to collectors. Mr. Lyon points out that due to the large number of covers that were received in Washington, a part of them were put through the new Benjamin Franklin Station and others were sent through the City Post Office.

The cachets applied at the two offices are identical but the cancellations are different. Those through the Benjamin Franklin Station show the town and date part of the cancellation with Washington at top and "D.C." at bottom with the day, time and year in three lines in the center and the lettering in the "killer" box much smaller than in the other cancellation which shows the town and date part with "Washington, D. C." at top, "1932" at bottom and date and time only, in the center.

Collectors who are interested in such varieties will have no difficulty in identifying the covers that went through the Benjamin Franklin Station as different from those through the City Post Office.

WISCONSIN WANTS COMMEMORATIVE

Stamp collectors of Wisconsin gathered at Fond du Lac recently and organized a State Association of Philatelic Societies. At this same meeting a movement was launched toward having the government issue a special commemorative stamp in 1934 honoring Jean Nocolet, French explorer, who landed in the vicinity of Green Bay 300 years ago.

EXTRA PROCEEDS FROM SALE OF WHICH FOR THE SALVATION ARMY.

FOR A WORTHY CAUSE

The above illustration shows the four Dutch Indies Charity stamps described at length in the September 17, issue of this paper. The stamps are to be issued by the Government of the Dutch East Indies for the benefit of the Salvation Army of that country. There are four stamps, values 2, 5, 12½ and 15 cents (Dutch.) They will be sold at 3, 7½, 15 and 20c (Dutch). The extra amount over postage value being donated to the Army. Each stamp is printed in two colors and displays the legend "Leger Des Heile" (The Salvation Army) in Dutch, and the official crest of the organization. Sets can be obtained from Salvation Army, 120 West 14th St., New York City, for 20c plus return postage.

EDITORIALS

THE NEW SCOTT CATALOGUE It would be useless to attempt to review this wonderful new catalogue from the standpoint of discussing price changes and such things. Those who have acquired their copy will have already looked over their pet countries and learned whether the Depression has or has not affected stamp values.

The new book is in a beautiful blue cover, the size has been changed from the small dumpty, thick volume to a larger six by nine inch size with three columns to the page. The new size is in our opinion much more desirable than the old. The book is handier to use, lays open at any point in a much more satisfactory manner, calls for less thumbing of the pages when working with it and is a very decided improvement over the previous edition.

The new feature of descriptive matter being printed beneath the illustrations is a highly desirable feature as it will lend more interest to stamps and stamps collecting.

Notes, briefly describing the country under each heading are also of much added interest and we are certain that all collectors will praise the Scott Stamp & Coin Company for this remarkable new catalogue.

Those who have not yet obtained their copy will find advertisements by the publishers in the last issue of this paper, offering the new book.

NEW ALBUMS BY SCOTT

The appearance of the annual Scott Catalogue is a matter which we look forward to as being a cut and dried affair and while we have just remarked that the current new catalogue is far advanced over previous issues, both in appearance and in desirability in every way, we feel that another announcement by the Scott Stamp & Coin Company is of far greater importance than is the announcement that the new catalogue is ready.

Scott has now announced a series of "Specialty Albums". Judging from the descriptions of these albums, we are of the opinion that the pages are of the same style and appearance as are those in their International Album. The feature about these albums is that one may buy, with certain limitations, pages for a certain and specific group of countries without being obliged to buy the entire series of International Albums.

To the collector who wants a good printed album, nothing but the loose leaf International has been available and the great cost of this album has made it prohibitive for many collectors, at least to buy it in one purchase.

Then too, many collectors collect only certain countries and groups of countries and the object of these new Specialty Albums is to supply albums covering just these certain countries or group of countries. At the present time there is announced an album for British America, an album for British North America alone, an album for Central America, an album for Italy and Colonies and an album for Spain and Colonies. Publication date on these various albums has been set for March 1933 and we predict that this plan of album selling will be quite popular with collectors.

We hope that the Scott Stamp & Coin Company will find it advisable at a later date to announce the sale of pages for any single country. Such a plan would meet with even greater approval of collectors.

BUSINESS

At least that is what some dealers tell us and we are inclined to believe that such is the case principally because those dealers are on their toes as to the wants and needs of the collector and are catering to those wants. There is much difference between selling a collector what he wants and trying to sell him something that you want to sell him. The up-to-date stamp merchant must learn the selling game just as merchants in other lines of business sell their merchandise.

On the other hand we have a letter from a dealer who features a fine stock of United States. His advertising merely offers to send a price list and seldom is changed. This dealer says that returns are very poor. Another dealer who has been using a single inch space just asked us to omit his advertisement for a couple weeks until he could pick up some more stock to offer as he was cleaned out on the small supply that he originally had.

Then there is the Westchester Stamp Company who have a definite sales plan for catering to collectors of United States Stamps. They have been carrying a two inch advertisement for several weeks, this week they use the entire front page. On the 6th of August, just two months ago they used the front page in this paper and here is what they have to say about that front page advertisement.

Dear Mr. Linn:

I might add that we trace over $300 in direct replies to our last full page ad., while the indirect business is still coming in.

Our U. S. plan is actually serving over one hundred people and they are all enthusiastic. Our main complaint in that direction is why more people haven't joined it. Plenty write in but fail to give it a trial.

Thus we say—Business is Good—at least for those dealers who are active and aggressive and who try to cater to the wants of the collector rather than simply announce that they have a stock of stamps for sale and if you want any of them ask us for a price list. That is no way to advertise, especially when there are hundreds of dealers who also have a stock of stamps for sale.

No publication can be expected to make business for you. All the publication can do for you is to give you a vehicle through which you can contact those who read the paper. If you offer something that a collector wants you will hear from him, and after you hear from him it is up to you to make a customer out of him, we can not do that for you.

Linn's Weekly Stamp News now has the largest paid circulation that has ever been attained by any stamp publication in the world. This feat has been accomplished by the help of our ever increasing army of friendly readers in a period of less than four years time. This accomplishment alone should be sufficient to convince any man that our readers are with us, that your offers will be read, that if you advertising will bring you business in any stamp publication, it will bring you more business in Linn's Hoover Bros. latest sale on Oct. 7th, again offered parts of the Jerrems property. These sales are worthy of your consideration.

Jerry Erikson our Hartford eagle eye sends in a nifty from Pittsburgh, the 4c perf ten type with a broken top line and the break all bunched up into a good sized blob and moved midway between the line and "P" of Pittsburgh. We might add it looks like the work of a careless fly.

Out of the many albums printed by Linprint we recently selected the Olympic as the one to use for remounting our break and oddity collection. Its handy sized 9 1/2 x 8 pages with a fine quadrille ground work make it a fine job for this rather erratic type of collection. The inexpensive price of 50c each allows for extravagant use of the 100 pages to each fine binder.

Our letter records shows that many of our old reliables have enjoyed a nice vacation over the summer and it's about time the column heard from you-all. Let's Go. —CCW

Pinch-Hitting

Your regular editor has designated the writer of this week's column as his substitute. My impression is that before I have finished writing this column that it should be named, Air Mail Splashes rather than Air Mail Flashes. Nevertheless, I will try to give you some of the airmail dope that you are accustomed to receiving regularly through this column.

Polish Air Service

The Polish air transportation company, "LOT" on August 17, 1932, extended its air service from Warsaw to Tallinn via Vilna and Riga. The line originally was from Warsaw to Thessaloniki.

Des Moines, Iowa

Is reported ready to dedicate its new airport but definite information is lacking about the handling of covers.

Basking Ridge, N. J.

Will dedicate its airport on October 23rd, and a cachet will be provided for air mail covers only. Cachet is sponsored by the American Legion and send your covers to E. L. Mundy, P. O. Box 644, Plainfield, N. J.

Niles, Ohio

Will dedicate its new Post Office Building about November First. The Board of Trade has promised an appropriate cachet for this dedication. Niles is the birthplace of William McKinley and for any collectors interested in this type of cover, a neat cover can be secured bearing the portrait of this former President by franking the cover with the 7c regular issue. The Postmaster at Niles has a quantity of 7c McKinley black, 1926 Rotary perf. 11 x 10½ and will apply these stamps to covers, if the proper M. O. remittance is made to him. Send your covers to either the Postmaster or the Board of Trade, Niles, Ohio.

Washington Bicentennial

October 8th, Lebanon Co. Historical Society sponsored a cachet commemorating the visit of Washington to the old Union Canal project in 1792.

Benjamin Franklin Post Office

September 26th, was the laying of the cornerstone of the new Post Office Building at Washington, D. C., to be known as the Benjamin Franklin Station. This was also the 143 Anniversary of the establishment of the United States Post Office. An appropriate green pictorial cachet was applied to all mail dispatched from the newly named postal station on the first day.

Newfoundland Recalls

The issue of $1.00 Aerial World Tours stamp which has been on the market for the past month. The reason given is that the flight did not take place. The stamps have been sold to many collectors and the exact status which they will have, is doubtful. The number printed is 400,000 and but 25,000 were issued.

Clyde Lee

Hope for his safety has been abandoned and he has failed in his transatlantic flight. With him were several covers of collectors.

The 50th Anniversary of founding of San Diego High School will be celebrated early in November, possibly a special postoffice cancellation. Covers to P. H. Heron, San Diego High School, San Diego, Calif.

Covers which reached H. G. Trout too late for the Olympic Water Sports cachet on August 9, were mailed Sept. 22, with cachet for California Aviation Week. This event came unannounced and those who got covers are among the fortunate.

A. A. M. S.

Glad to see the editorial notes by our good friend, Geo. Linn in his recent issue about the success of the A. A. M. S. Convention at Cleveland Ohio. This international society is really active the year around and trying to help the collectors and boost the hobby.

OFFICIAL HANDBOOK OF FEDERAL HALL HISTORIC POSTAL CACHETS

The above is the title of a very interesting booklet that collectors will doubtless be glad to own as it gives all the facts about the series of Federal Hall Cachets that are being issued and has many fine pictures and much information that will be of interest to collectors. It is the official book of the Commission. The retail price is 15c but mail orders are only accepted for four or more copies. Postage of course is extra.

Arrangements however have been made whereby anyone sending 25 cents silver or money order to Mr. Fred Sanders, 4743-38th Street, Long Island City, N. Y., a copy of this book will be sent postpaid. Mr. Sanders has kindly volunteered to obtain and mail copies for anyone wanting them.

CHICAGO STAMP BOURSE

The Chicago Stamp Bourse, an illustration of one of the meetings of which was printed in the September 24th issue of Linn's Weekly Stamp News has outgrown its quarters at the World's Fair Club. It has become necessary to seek larger meeting quarters for this most popular gathering.

The Board of Governors has just announced that all future meetings will be held at the Washington Cafeteria, 167 West Washington St., every Thursday evening, at 8:00 p. m. It will be noted that the meeting night has been changed from Friday to Thursday. Meetings are held every week and all stamp collectors are invited to attend to buy, sell or trade. Accommodations for 500 collectors are available at the new meeting place. The bourse is for both stamp and coin collectors.

OLD TIME DEALER DIES

Joseph Holmes, formerly in the stamp business at Norwich, N. Y., died Friday, September 9 in the Maine General Hospital at Portland, Maine. For the past three months he had resided at Standish, Maine. He had been in poor health for some time and was unable to attend to his business which will now be carried on by his son E. J. Holmes from R. D. 1, Sebago Lake, Maine.

Mr. Holmes was an old time A. P. S. member, his number being 812. He was a member of the Collectors Club of New York, also of Rutherford Stamp Club.

He was 72 years old and is survived by his widow, eight children, three brothers and a sister.

A. P. S. 1933 CONVENTION

The World's Fair Committee, which by the way is the name of the committee in charge of the 1933 A.P.S. Convention and exhibition which will be held in Chicago, in 1933, during the time of the great Century of Progress Fair, held a meeting on the evening of September 22nd, and selected the Medinah Athletic Club as the meeting place of the Society for 1933. There are plenty of fine rooms to be had at $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00. The club is just north of the Tribune Tower Building on Michigan Avenue.

The Committee announces that none of the Chicago Hotels will advance their rates for the Fair, but that it will be advisable for those who intend to go to make advance reservations.

Plenty of entertainment will be provided for all and personally conducted tours to all the interesting points in Chicago will be a feature.

UNUSED POSTAGE DUES

I note in Mekeel's that Phil Ward in commenting on my letter to the Postmaster General about helping the deficit by permitting the sale of unused Due Stamps, says that he tried to get that done and found that Congress would have to change the law before it COULD be done.

I know, Phil, but why don't the P. M. G. propose to the Congress to change the law. Laws HAVE been changed, you know. I read somewhere they were even meaning to change the prohibition law. A lot of ready money lying around waiting to be picked up, and he looks at the deficit and groans!!

—A. C. Townsend.

BITS OF NEWS

Oliver R. Mowery who had been doing business under his own name is now operating under the name of North Jersey Stamp Company from the same address. Northern New Jersey collectors can meet him at 34 Grove Street, Little Ferry, N. J.

A stamp club has recently been organized at Pulaski, N. Y., and Mr. E. R. Warner sends a flock of subscriptions for Linn's. Collectors who would be interested in joining this club can get in touch with Mr. Warner by addressing him at 120 N. Jefferson St.

An attractive and handy pocket size price list of U. S. and British North American stamps has just been issued by the Reliant Stamp Company of New York. A copy can be had by addressing them at 65 Nassau Street. This is the new 1933 price list with price changes based on 1933 catalogue quotations.

Robert S. Benson of Hamilton, Md., sends in a list of five new subscriptions for Linn's and says that he expects to send in five more as his quota toward a 50,000 subscription list for the paper. "Bob" says, "It sells itself."

The Cedar Rapids Stamp Club of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, decided at its meeting of September 19th, to give a years subscription to Linn's Weekly to all new members. This fact is printed in their application blanks and Secretary Douglas M. White suggests that other clubs might find this a desirable plan to adopt.

Broadway Chatter

By BI STANDER

A mad scramble for used 7 cent Bicentennials in New York. Very few come in the mails. 9 cent used Bi's are appearing more plentiful owing to change in rate. The 8 cent Bi is harder to pick up in quantities.

Collections are not being offered to dealers in numbers. Seems to be the last resort of collectors to sell. Still you can't eat stamps.

U. S. No. 603 coil used is much overpriced at 15 cent a stamp in catalog. Quantities are found in mixtures bought from suppliers in large cities.

The new shop of Broadway Stamp Company on Fulton Street, New York, is on the street level and collectors seem incessantly to be gazing through the windows. This shop is on a very crowded street.

Mozian's last auction produced some good prices in U. S. and foreigners held up well. Encouraging sign for a good season.

Price war in New York on airmails seems to have abated.

5c Olympics used are showing up in Manhattan just now but should be short lived. Reported forty million printed.

William D. Bailey of Newburgh, N. Y., was a visitor at the office of Linn's Weekly on October 28th. Mr. Bailey remarked that most of the stamp collectors of Newburgh are subscribers to the Weekly.

10,000 POUNDS

FINE FOREIGN MIXTURE

I can offer of this one kind alone, which I call the "Dealer's Goldmine".

This is a foreign mission mixture which will come direct to you from a mission in France and is guaranteed unpicked. Although the bulk is France, it contains lots of other countries, French colonies, Airmails, commemoratives, recent issues, etc. A real chance for "finds", as nothing is taken out. I offer a 10 Kilo sack (22 1/2 lbs.—ab. 110,000 stamps) for only $3.65 prepaid to you from France. 75 Kilos (168 lbs.) by freight prepaid to New York, $42.50 (entry fees and freight beyond N. Y. in addition). For those who need that kind, I can offer an extra cheap grade, not unpicked, of France alone for $25.50, for 75 Kilos prepaid to N. Y. Think of it, only 15c per lb. incl. freight.

If you want other mixtures, send for the big list from "MIXTURE HEAD-QUARTERS".
